What are Class Representatives?

Class Representatives give feedback about issues affecting students as they arise within their classes and courses. They are students who volunteer to act as a class contact between students, teaching staff and the students' association (Te Tira Ahu Pae).

Why be a Class Representative?

- It is an easy way to meet new people – great for first year students who want to make some new friends
- Increased involvement in the course means a higher chance of succeeding
- Develop leadership and employment skills
- Gain experience that can be bragged about on your CV when you graduate! Plenty of certificates to be earned!
- Contribute to high quality courses and teaching
